AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GROVER'S THEATRE.-Madame Ponisi Will to-night repeat her admirable delineation of the "Marquise Pompadour," in the tragedy of Narcisse." A large and fashionable audience were delighted with her superior acting last night, and as this tragedy will be performed to-night for the last time, a crowded house may be anticipated. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bishop also appear in an excellent farce.

VARIETIES. - Fitzsimmens announces that he will keep his new play, "Dangers of a Dancing Girl," on the boards of the Varieties but for one week. Lovers of sensation must hurry up if they would see it. The rest of the concert hall company in a good bill.

CANTERBURY.—There is no greater favorite at Canterbury than John Mulligan, and visitors here will be delighted to know that he has returned, after a short absence. Mulligan is without doubt a splendid Ethiopian performer. The Fowler sisters, John Denier, Jennie Engle, Redden, Dougherty, Delehanty and Ward, and all of the company appear tonight in a splendid bill.

FORD'S THEATRE-The popular bill which was so well received last night, "Kathleen Mayourneen" and "Thrice Married," will be repeated to-night again by the Florences and the excellent company at Ford's. All of the plays of the Florences are spicy and amusing, and no one can visit them without enjoying a hearty laugh. This is their last week.

FOURTH WARD MEETING .- Last evening a meeting of the citizens of the Fourth Ward was held in the Council Chamber, the object of which was to take measures to avert the draft.

Mr. A Lloyd occupied the Chair, and R. S. Davis acted as Secretary. Mr. J. M. Tompkins from the finance committee reported the following: subscriptions at first meeting, $1,000.

Messrs. Spottswood and Stitt, $416; Halleck and Davis, $610; Burnside and Porter, $22.50; W. J. Harris, 84; J. M. Tompkins, $230.50; Cunningham and Barbour, $470.50.

Cash collected by Spottswood and Stitt, $412; Halleck and Douglas, $277; Porter and Burnside, $66; W. J. Harris, $80; J. M. Tompkins, $71; Cunningham and Barbour, $390. Total cash and subscriptions, $4,049.50. The collections for the exemptod services. tions for the evening amounted to $1,001. Mr. Stitt offered a resolution providing that the money be equally divided among those drafted in the ward, provided they shall have subscribed $20 or upwards. Mr. H. Lyles objected to the proviso because it would go hard on the poor men, many were unable to pay $20.

Mr. Davis argued that the object of the fund was to procure recruits. Mr. Charles Walter thought that every man in the ward by some means could raise the Mr. Stitt said it was impossible to raise the amount necessary by subscription unless something was done to induce subscriptions, and he argued that by the passage of this resolution the treasury would be largely in-Mr. Tompkins, stated that he was glad that things had come to a point. The committee had had up hill work, they had been disappointed. It was astonishing to him that, notwithstanding, from 4 to 5000 men, had been enrolled in the ward, yet 100 men could not be found who would give $100 each, to avert the draft. To exempt the ward, everyone should put his shoulders to the wheel and work. He proposed to be one to give one hundred dollars. [Applause]. During the course of the evening, the following followed Mr. Tompkins example: signing a paper pledging themselves to give one hundred dollars to the object when one hundred names are subscribed: R. S. Davis, C E. Evans, D. Blakesler, N. Grossmayer, W. Wolfsheimer and Edward Shaw. The following gentlemen were appointed to procure $100 subscriptions: Messrs. R. Wallach, C. H. Utermehle, Davis, Moore, Blakesler, Lloyd, Grossmayer, Topham, Barbam. Mr. J. C. Clayton argued that the association Was for the purpose of siding the poorer classes and those in his opinion who wished the benefits for those able to pay upwards of $20 should join an exemption club which he thought were drawbacks. Mr. Stitt, here withdrew his resolution.

A discussion here arose as to those who subscribed, during which it was stated that the greatest success was met with among the poorer classes, while most of the merchants on the avenue had given nothing. It was stated that Messrs. Myers, Scanlon, Costello had, during Sunday, collected in one of the poorest looking districts of the ward $246; and a unanimous vote of thanks to them was passed. It was suggested that the colored men, who were as liable to draft as the whites, should be doing something; and 2 committee of colored men, consisting of Messrs. Alfred Balland, Wm. Slade and Alfred Gieger, were appointed to solicit subscriptions amongst their friends. Mr. Lyles moved the appointment of a committee to procure a copy of the enrolled men of the ward, who shall have power to employ a clerk; carried, and Messrs. Lyles, J. N. John-son and E. J. Klopfer were appointed. Mr. Lyles wished that the public might see who were helping in this matter, and moved that the names of the subscribers be published; but after some objections that the amount required could be better used if paid into the fund, it was withdrawn.

Mr. Tompkins moved the appointment of a committee of ten to work actively in putting in substitutes and recruits as fast as they can be procured, and as long as the money holds out Carried, and the chair appointed Messrs. J. T. Chauncey, J. N. Johnson, James T. Walker, M. R. A. Fenwick, Chas. Walter, Samuel T. Crown, John T. Halleck, J. L. Moere. Jr., Wm. Douglass and James Spotts wood. The com-mittee open a recruiting office this morning at No. 21 Louisiana avenue.

The meeting adjourned to this evening. During the evening Mr. Stitt announced that the police of the Fourth Ward intended giving a pic nic at the Park on Tuesday, 27th instant, for the benefit of any drafted men in the ward, and quite a large number of tickets were

THE DEAFT MEETING OF THE FIRST WARD was held at the Government Mess House, corner of 21st and F streets, last night. Mr. Samuel E. Douglass, the president, called the meeting to order, and stated that he had seen in the Star that the draft in the First Ward would take place on Tuesday, and that those subject to the draft had no time to lose in coming to some conclusion as to what had best be done. He had canvassed the ward and found many who objected to contribute unless they knew who would be benefitted by it, but that if they could be satisfied that some worthy man with a family, or one who was willing to help himself, would be benefitted, they would contribute largely. It was now certain that they could not raise money enough to procure volunteers to prevent a draft in this ward, but he thought the best way for them to do would be to form clubs of $100, $50, and even as low as $25. Ae also thought that the quota for this ward was excessive, but that could not now be helped. He hoped that those present would form themselves into clubs, and in that manmer aid themselves and each other. A gentleman had just handed him $50, and he should place his name on a $50 :lub.

A considerable sum of money had been contributed by gentlemen who were not liable to be drafted, and he thought their contributions should be returned if they demanded it, otherwise it could be used to procure volunteers and lessen the quota. A club was then formed by several gentlemen who contributed $200 each for the benefit of its members. Mr. J. E. Allen was elected its treasurer. Also, a $50 club was formed, and Mr. Sipes was elected its treasurer. These gentlemen were to be at Mr. Smith's office, on 21st street, between E and F streets, until 10 a. m. Tuesday and the books were to be kept open till that time. Mr. Rapley moved that this Association keep up its organization and meet on Tuesday to see what could be done to aid those who were drafted; adopted.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE DRAFT, THIRD WARD MEETING .- The citizens of the ward held a large meeting last evening, at Temperance Hall. The president, (Mr. Sarner) reported that the committee appointed yesterday morning to proceed to Aiex andria and put in recruits, had performed that duty, but had not met with the success they anticipated. Three, however, had been put in. Arrangements had been made to put in a large number to-day.

If there was a draft, however, the number to be drafted would be very small, and the club and the committee would guarantee to help them out. Mr. L. desired it to be distinctly understood that should any person be drafted in the ward who had not contributed to this fund, he was to be let slide.

The Secretary reported that the total cash receipts to last evening inclusive, was $9,000, several subscriptions not having yet been paid in. The meeting then adjourned

MAGGIE MITCHELL.—Bright, sprightly "Lit-tle Cricket" is engaged for Ford's Theater, and in a night or two will gladden the hearts of thousands who have listened longingly for the music of her cheery chirps. She will return to this scene of her richest triumphs restored in health by months of repose, ripened in charms, and enriched in fame by the popular homage which has been everywhere lavished upon her since her last memorable engagement at Ford's.

DANCING LESSONS .- Prof. Marini, that acco mplished teacher of the elegant accomplish ment of dancing, will commence his season a Temperance Hall to-day. See his advertise

FLAG RAISING.-Another large campaign flag, bearing the names of Lincoln and Johnson, was flung to the breeze last night by the German Union Club. The flag is suspended over the Avenue, between the Hotel Gerhard and the William Tell Hotel, and it was hailed with cheers by a large crowd. Speeches were made by Mr. Conheim, editor of the "Columbian," in German, and by Hon. B. B. French, Hon. Green Clay Smith, and Charles Case, of Indiana, in English.

PROTRACTED MEETINGS.—In addition to the series of meetings at the McKendree Chapel, under the charge of Rev. John Thrush, and at Ryland Chapel, under charge of Rev. J. M. H. Lemon, meetings were commenced yesterday at the 9th street Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. J. T. Ward, and East Washington M. P. Church, Rev. W. W. Reese, at both of which, much interest is manifested.

SEVENTH WARD EXEMPTION ASSOCIATION. Special attention is called to the meeting of this association to-night, as business of great importance will come up, requiring the attention of every member.

PARICULAR ATTENTION is called to the ad. vertisement of the draft meeting in Georgetown to-night.
